

STATE ✓ Virginia	COUNTY New Kent	TOWN OR VICINITY New Kent Court House vic. 13s 11p 4d
INDEX NUMBER VA, 64-NEWK.V.1-	MONUMENT CRISS - Christie Cross (POINDEXTER HOUSE)
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE	H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. VA-126 ✓	History - Said to have been built as early as 1680. The old
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS	home of the Poindexter family.
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS	Description: Brick, Flemish bond with glazed headers. Story and a half except front
EAA FN- 44, 45 46, 47 F.B.J. GPO 6-8369	"porch" 12x12, two stories high. Probably originally one in back too, causing name, usually criss-cross. Porch room contains original timbered ceiling. Summer, grits ✓ HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY 103 and joists all chamfered. Interior originally two rooms to first floor. Summers still visible, though joists plastered over. Post at intersection of girders still in place, carved with heart and shouldered.

Author of Card

Dr. C. G. Chamberlayne

St. Christopher's School,
Richmond, Virginia.

June 12, 1936

XLIII NO. 1, JAN., 1934

Reference: Virginia Magazine of History & Biology,
Singleton Peabody Moorhead.